

KENTUCKY DERBY WINNER MYSTIK DAN BACK TO HIS BEST IN THE BLAME

First Derby Winner in 27 Years To Win a Race Back at Churchill

Mystik Dan | Coady Media

by Alan Carasso

Since his upset victory in the GI Kentucky Derby nearly 400 days ago, not a whole lot had gone right for Mystik Dan (Goldencents). Yes, he was a meritorious second to a loose-on-the-lead Seize the Grey (Arrogate) in the GI Preakness Stakes, but he subsequently failed to shine in the GI Belmont Stakes, the GI Malibu Stakes when racing first off a 6 1/2-month absence and the GI Pegasus World Cup, defeating a total of four horses.

Trainer Ken McPeck has remained unflappable and unwavering in his belief that Mystik Dan still had more to give as an older horse, saying earlier this week that the colt had thrived back at Churchill Downs in the weeks following his bounce-back second to the classy Saudi Crown (Always Dreaming) in the Lake Ouachita Stakes at Oaklawn on the one-year anniversary of his Derby on May 3. McPeck's convictions, and those of jockey Brian Hernandez, Jr., were well and truly validated Saturday afternoon when Mystik Dan rolled through the final two furlongs to take the GIII Blame Stakes in a fashion more convincing than the 1 1/4-length margin of victory might suggest.

NYSOS CANTERS HOME IN THE TRIPLE BEND

by Alan Carasso

Opting for a confidence-builder over a trip to Saratoga for next weekend's GI Metropolitan Handicap, Baoma Corp's 'TDN Rising Star' Nysos (Nyquist) made light work of three rivals in Saturday's GIII Triple Bend Stakes at Santa Anita, strolling home under little encouragement from Juan Hernandez to score as a mile the best.

The slowest away from the inside stall, the prohibitive favorite methodically made his way through at the inside and poked his head in front as they raced in post-position order into the far turn. The comebacking Dr. Venkman (Ghostzapper), runner-up as the odds-on favorite in this event 12 months ago, tried his best to keep up, but Nysos began to assert at the quarter pole and was under no urging whatsoever while pulling clear from Dr. Venkman to take it by 5 1/2 lengths.

A smashing 10 1/2-length winner of his debut in October 2023 to become a no-brainer 'Rising Star', Nysos defeated future GI Santa Anita Derby winner Stronghold (Ghostzapper) in the GIII Bob Hope Stakes, cementing his status as a leading chance on the Triple Crown trail for 2024. Cont. p5

Karl Burke has emerged as a fierce opponent to planned changes to the Windsor Castle Stakes at Royal Ascot, describing the new race conditions announced by the British Horseracing Authority's Flat Pattern Committee (FPC) as a "ridiculous idea".

Off as the 3-1 third betting choice, Mystik Dan was content to take the sit from fourth while racing hard against the inside running rail as Alexander Helios (Cairo Prince) set a strong early pace in advance of Antiquarian (Preservationist) and a three-deep 'TDN Rising Star' Hall of Fame (Gun Runner).

Ridden quietly through the middle furlongs while continuing to hug the fence, Mystik Dan was steered out and around Alexander Helios when that one hoisted the white flag at the five-sixteenths and was just as quickly back down onto the fence once heads were turned for home. Displaying a good kick when popped the question in earnest, Mystik Dan went on with things and proved clearly best in stakes-record time, as a resurgent Antiquarian and late-running Post Time (Frosted) rounded out the minor placings.

Mystik Dan becomes the first Derby winner to subsequently win a race beneath the Twin Spires since Silver Charm backed up his win in the 1997 Run for the Roses in the GI Clark Handicap in 1998.

Coady Media

"When Mystik Dan is right, he's such a fun horse to ride because he makes my job so easy," Hernandez, Jr. said. "Just like in the Derby, today he sits in a nice pocket and let's you read the race. When you call on him, you know he's going to jump forward and that's what he did today. We got that spot turning for home and he showed why he won the Kentucky Derby in the past. It's a testament to the horse. He makes these kind of trips easy, I just have to point him in the right direction."

McPeck indicated that Mystik Dan would more than likely represent the stable in the GI Stephen Foster Stakes, a 'Win and You're In' qualified for the GI Breeders' Cup Classic on June 28.

Bred on a similar cross to Grade III winner Mr. Money and on a variant of the cross that produced GISW and champion Wonder Wheel and GI La Troienne Stakes heroine Played Hard, Mystik Dan is one of now two winners from two to race out of Ma'am, whose 3-year-old daughter Yes Ma'am (Unified) won her maiden by 3 1/2 lengths at Horseshoe Indianapolis--ironically enough--on Kentucky Derby day four weeks ago.

Second dam Lady Siphonica, dam of the Hong Kong stakes-placed Renaissance Art (More Than Ready), was a full-sister to Siphonic, winner of the 2001 GI Hollywood Futurity and a half-sister to SW Mountain Girl (Mountain Cat). Also appearing under the third dam are GISW Laragh (Tapit) and MGSW & MGISP Summer Front (War Front).

Ma'am, who was bought back on a bid of $2.9 million in foal to Into Mischief at last year's Fasig-Tipton November Sale, is also the dam of the 2-year-old filly Ford's Ma'am (Knicks Go) and the yearling colt Mystik Bayou (Wells Bayou).

He did little to dispel that notion when racing clear by 7 1/2 lengths in the GIII Robert B. Lewis Stakes on seasonal debut last February, but ultimately missed the Classics and the balance of the season. He made his return to the races in a red-hot renewal of the GI Churchill Downs Stakes May 3, his late run falling just short of fellow 'Rising Star' Mindframe (Constitution) while dead-heating for the place spot with Banishing (Ghostzapper).

"Juan rode him beautifully, the horse broke really well and he kept him up there," said winning trainer Bob Baffert. "We are talking about a four-horse field, it is tough because you know you are going to be a big target there. He just inched him up there and he didn't lose his spot and once he took the lead, you figured out the horse that he is."

"I am so proud to have a horse like this. He is so talented, I know the Met Mile would have been a great spot, but his last race, you know he needed it. Now from here we can build and pick our spots. Eventually on to the Breeders' Cup. The way he handled it today, he didn't take a deep breath."

Pedigree Notes:

On behalf of Clinton and Susie Atkins, Hall of Famer D. Wayne Lukas gave $260,000 for Nysos's second dam Seresa's Spirit at the 2004 Keeneland September Sale when offered as part of the Estate of Better Devenport, whose husband Roger campaigned third dam Unbridled Elaine to victory in the 2001 GI Breeders' Cup Distaff. Betty Devenport's passing on Jan. 21, 2004 came just 22 days after her husband's.

Zetta Z was the first of three foals produced for the Atkinses by Seresa's Spirit before they sold her on for $23,000 in foal to Curlin at Keeneland November in 2014. After producing six foals, including $700,000 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga yearling Bandon Woods (Uncle Mo), Zetta Z fetched $35,000 when offered pregnant to Street Sense at KEENOV in 2021 and the colt that would become Nysos followed her into the ring, changing hands for $130,000. He would then sell for $150,000 at Fasig-Tipton October in 2022 and for $550,000 at OBS the following April.

It is safe to say that since then, the family has taken off. Zetta Z's foal of 2020, the Distorted Humor filly Attabe, was third in the Ruling Angel Stakes in May 2023 a handful of months before Nysos began making headlines. Attabe was represented by her first foal this season, a colt by Nyquist, bred in Kentucky by Mark Dodson. Warnock (Yaupon), the current 2-year-old out of Zetta Z, was a $450,000 KEENOV purchase not long after Nysos broke his maiden and the circle was completed when Zetta Z was purchased by Coolmore for a sales-topping $2 million in foal to Cyberknife at the 2024 Fasig-Tipton February Sale. Zetta Z was most recently covered by Justify. Cont. p6

Carl Pollard's Caressing returned a cool $96 to her backers when taking out the 2000 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies and some 25 years later beneath the same Twin Spires, her 5-year-old son Mercante did the family proud with a gutsy victory in the GIII Arlington Stakes.

Silent Heart (Heart to Heart) won the break, but was in no particular hurry to lead them up, and with nothing else showing any initiative, favored Brilliant Berti was clicked up by Brian Hernandez, Jr. and slowed them down up front as Mercante refused to allow that one to get too far away from second. Lobbing them along at an even clip down the back, Brilliant Berti continued to hold the advantage, but had Mercante breathing down his neck and the two were more or less on even terms at the quarter pole. Mercante raced on his incorrect lead, but poked his head in front approaching the eighth pole and Brilliant Berti boxed on gamely, refusing to give way. The duo raced heads apart into the final sixteenth of a mile and Mercante gutted it out for the win. Cont. p8

Call Protection (Good Samaritan), well-backed at 3-1, was pulled up and out of the race at the halfway stage by Irad Ortiz, Jr. and was vanned off. According to track publicity, the extent of the injuries to his right front leg were severe and the 4-year-old colt was euthanized.

A maiden winner in six starts for the Bill Mott barn--on turf debut in April 2023--Mercante won three of his four starts over the winter at Turfway Park, capping that streak with a breakthrough graded success in the GIII Kentucky Cup Classic Mar. 22. Returned to the grass for the GI Old Forester Turf Classic May 3, the homebred gelding was prominent every step of the way, had his head in front with a furlong to come and held very gamely to be second, beaten 3/4 of a length by Spirit of St Louis (Medaglia d'Oro).

Pedigree Notes:

The Eclipse Award-winning 2-year-old filly of her generation in 2000, Caressing won the GIII La Troienne Stakes back at Churchill in 2001 and was Grade III-placed at four before calling it a career.

Her first five live foals won a total of six races before her 2011 produce, Gold Hawk became her first black-type horse with a third-place effort in the 2014 GIII Lecomte Stakes. The Grade III-placed Juan and Bina followed, but it was Gary and Mary West's West Coast who put the mare on the map, with victories in the 2017 GI Travers Stakes and GI Pennsylvania Derby en route to the 3-year-old championship. Caressing passed away in 2021 and Mercante is her final foal.

The family has also gained a foothold in Japan owing to Caressing's very first foal, My Goodness (Storm Cat), a $475,000 Keeneland September yearling, but sold to Japanese interests for $60,000 in foal to Purge at Keeneland November in 2010. My Goodness is responsible for seven winners from nine Japanese Royal Spa snapped a seven-race losing streak with a last-out win of Laurel's one-turn mile Heavenly Cause S. Apr. 12 and doubled up for a career high in Saturday's GIII Shawnee S. at Churchill Downs.

Off at odds of 13-1 here, she ran into a little trouble in the early going and was steadied slightly on the clubhouse turn. She raced in seventh through a half mile in :47.06, began to roll with a sweeping move on the far turn and came charging down the center to power past Gin Gin.

"This win means so much to me because (owner) Breffni Farm are some of the best people," said winning trainer Rodolphe Brisset. "We knew that probably going seven-eighths or a mile is her best distance but the circumstances really worked out well to try longer today. She was a bit further back than we originally planned but it might've benefitted her for the future. I'm not sure what we will do with her next. It worked out well trying a longer distance today but we also know she runs well going a little shorter." Cont. p9

Royal Spa's resume also includes runner-up finishes in the 2024 GIII Chilukki S. beneath the Twin Spires and the Barbara Fritchie S. at Laurel earlier this year in February.

Pedigree Notes:

Royal Spa becomes the 20th graded winner for Violence. Broodmare sire Mineshaft is now responsible for 20 graded winners as well. The graded-placed winner's dam Bodacious Babe, a $350,000 KEENOV purchase by breeder Breffni Farm in 2018, also has the 2-year-old filly Bodacious Bay (Not This Time), a $350,000 KEESEP yearling purchase by Storyteller Racing, a Violence colt of 2024 and a Curlin filly of this year. Bodacious Babe is a half-sister to Japanese standout Awesome Result (Justify), who suffered her first career defeat in the Empress Hai earlier this month, and GISW Sippican Harbor (Orb).

Fionn launched an impressive last-to-first rally to win Saturday's GIII Regret S. at Churchill Downs.

The favored pacesetter Classic Q (Classic Empire) tired at the top of the stretch as Totally Justified took over at the three-sixteenths. Fionn tipped out to the center in the stretch and powered home from there for a career high.

Fionn capped a three-race winning streak in the Allen Black Cat LaCombe Memorial S. at Fair Grounds Mar. 8 and rallied for third behind next-out GII Edgewood S. heroine Nitrogen (Medaglia d'Oro) in Keeneland's GII Appalachian S. Apr. 8.

"It was a good trip," winning trainer Brad Cox said. "She's been a really consistent filly and I think she will keep improving off of this."

Winning jockey Florent Geroux added, "They were going fast up front so I just let her get into a nice rhythm and do her thing. She kept finding more late and really dug in."

Pedigree Notes:

Fionn, a $75,000 KEESEP yearling, becomes the 25th graded/group winner worldwide for Twirling Candy. The Twirling Candy x Giant's Causeway cross is also responsible for GISW Pinehurst. Gaelic Gold, a maiden of six career starts, has the 2-year-old colt Essential Storm (Essential Quality), a $105,000 KEESEP yearling purchase by Jeffrey and Julie Puryear, a yearling colt by Connect and a Jackie's Warrior colt of this year in the pipeline. Gaelic Gold brought $275,000 from breeder Dixiana Farms carrying Fionn at the 2021 KEENOV sale.

Market leaders Skelly (Practical Joke) and 'TDN Rising Star' World Record went at each other hammer and tongs through unsustainable early fractions, and that set things up nicely for Durante, who came after the top two anew in upper stretch and inched away to register a 33-1 upset in Saturday's GIII Aristides Stakes at Churchill Downs.

The odds-on pop off consecutive big-figure stakes scores at his winter base at Oaklawn Park, Skelly missed the break--as he did when runner-up as the 3-10 chalk in last year's Aristides--and Durante was quickest away, cutting out the running through the opening stages before taking back into third when the top two choices hooked up approaching the turn.

The opening quarter-mile was posted in a wicked :20.94, but Skelly and World Record continued to match motors on the turn and led the field, racing noses apart, into the lane. World Record forged to a narrow advantage entering the final furlong, but Durante, who switched off the fence in upper stretch, began to reel him in and went on to prevail. Giant Mischief and Happy Is a Choice dead-heated for third, while Skelly finished a tailed-off last.

"He broke like a rocket but I was able to give him a breather around the turn," commented winning jockey Jose Ortiz. "In the stretch, he came on again and really finished up well. I think it was a really good field today and could beat one another on any given day. Today, it was our day."

Winner of the GIII Bold Ruler Stakes in the fall of 2023, his fourth win from his first five runs for this owner/trainer, Durante got his picture taken just once from eight outings in 2024, a Delaware starter-optional test last August. The veteran faced Skelly two back, finishing 11 lengths adrift of the speedball in the May 2 Lake Hamilton Stakes, and was third in local allowance company May 16.

Pedigree Notes:

One of 75 worldwide graded/group winners for his much-missed sire, Durante is one of three winners from four starters out of an unraced half-sister to Gaff (Maria's Mon), a listed winner in Ireland during the early part of his career before winning the GIII Aegon Turf Sprint on the grass and the GIII Mr. Prospector Stakes on the dirt while under the care of Steve Asmussen. Seahawk Girl is also the dam of the 3-year-old gelding Mr Entertainer (Twirling Candy), the juvenile filly Lady of the Nile (Authentic) and a filly by Elite Power foaled Mar. 5.

KING'S PLATE WINNER CAITLINHERGRTNESSE RETURNS IN STYLE AT WOODBINE

Caitlinhergrtness | Michael Burns

by Stefanie Grimm

Unraced since November, last year's King's Plate winner and Canadian champion 3-year-old filly Caitlinhergrtness (Omaha Beach) returned in great style to Woodbine Saturday, winning the GIII Belle Mahone Stakes to open her 2025 season.

Having beaten the boys in the first leg of the Canadian Triple Crown, the filly, named for WNBA player Caitlin Clark, returned to facing her own gender Saturday having been third behind She Feels Pretty (Karakontie {Jpn}) in the GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup Stakes at Keeneland and fourth in the GIII Maple Leaf to finish out her 2024 campaign.

Well rested off the six-month layoff and smoothly handled along the inside with a smooth beginning, Caitlinhergrtness settled a cozy third around the clubhouse turn as Dana's Beauty (Not This Time) dueled outside of For Flying (Brz) (Drosselmeyer) for command up front. Racing a solo third for much of the backstretch run, she was patiently handled even as the field began to swarm around her past the half-mile pole. Just awaiting her cue, the 2-1 race favorite got cut loose between horses with a quarter-mile left to run and, once in the clear, she ran up the score with a strong performance over For Flying who best Ready for Shirl (More Than Ready) in a three-way photo finish for the minor placings.

"I was just trying to get her to relax," said winning rider Rafael Hernandez. "She's been working really hard, and I just want to get her back on her feet and relax good. And I know when she is able to do that, when I put her in the clear, she's going to explode like she did today. She's been working amazing, and everything paid off today."

Trainer Kevin Attard added: "I was a little more nervous with her, just because she had been working so fast, and we were making a conscious effort trying to slow her down in the mornings. She came into us early in the year from WinStar, just looking like a different animal. She matured so much, she filled out, she grew and, you know, it all transpired onto the racetrack."

Pedigree Notes:

One of 17 stakes winners and the 5th individual graded stakes winner for Omaha Beach, Caitlinhergrtness is out of a Giant's Causeway first dam with a perfect three for three record of runners to winners to her name. As a broodmare sire, Giant's Causeway needs no introduction, siring the dams of champions like Gun Runner (Candy Ride {Arg}). Belatrix, who passed through the KEENOV ring on a final bid of $11,000 in 2023 before her daughter came to 'greatness', is a half-sister to MSW/GISP Dogtag (War Front) and to the dam of Australian MGSW/MG1SP Osipenko (NZ) (Pierro {Aus}). This is also the family of European champion 2-year-old colt and successful sire Shamardal (Giant's Causeway). Caitlinhergrtness has just one younger sibling—a 3-year-old Midnight Lute half-brother named Sovereign Star who is unraced. Belatrix was reported as served by Liggins for 2025 but has not produced a foal since 2022 despite visits to Cloud Computing for 2023 and Greatest Honour for 2024.

Classic Mo Town waded into graded company on only one other occasion and that was back in December when he finished as the runner-up to Get Smokin in the GIII bet365 Valedictory Stakes in Toronto. Since then, the gelding finished off the board in a handicap at Gulfstream Park Jan. 25 and in the same spot facing optional claimers Mar. 5--both on the all-weather.

Classic Mo Town | Michael Burns

Taking a month respite before returning to the tab, Classic Mo Town was installed as a 9-1 shot here. At the start, his old adversary Get Smokin was keen to make the lead and did so by flashing some early foot. Meanwhile, the 5-year-old was taken in hand and settled midpack along the rail into the first turn. With the pacesetting chalk intent on making it a pillar to post afternoon, Classic Mo Town was on hold up the backstretch, but entering the far turn he started to hustle by circling Dataman (Tapit) which put him into third. The Martin Drexler trainee had all the momentum as he passed Get Smokin down the lane and held off a late wall-crawling charge in the final jumps from Webslinger. Cont. p13

Old Chestnut took home the first graded trophy of his career when the 8-year-old won the GIII Jacques Cartier Stakes at Woodbine on Saturday.

The gelding was competing throughout his latest form cycle against optional claimers both at Woodbine last fall and through the spring at Gulfstream Park with little success. Entered in this particular race over the past two years with a third-place finish in 2023 and as the runner-up in 2024, Old Chestnut was expecting to face Canadian Horse of the Year Patches O'Houlihan (Reload), but the champ was forced to scratch.

With only two others drawn, Old Chestnut was keen up the backstretch and dished out the tempo around the far turn. The veteran runner was roused to offer more by the top of the lane and he responded with a gate to wire performance.

"It was something you didn't expect," said trainer Martin Drexler, of Patches O'Houlihan's absence. "But, I mean, horse racing always throws something at you, so glad to take it. So, I actually thought we were live in here."

Old Chestnut | Michael Burns

Pedigree Notes:

Continuing the ode to the much-missed Speightstown (by Gone West), Old Chestnut is his 69th graded winner, joining the likes of Charlatan and Olympiad. Pool Land, who was purchased for a mere $57,000 by SF Bloodstock at the 2019 Keeneland January Sale, also foaled the dam of SW Into Champagne (Into Mischief) and her last registered offspring of record is current 4-year-old colt in-training Fire in My Sul (Justify). It was bombs away in the GIII Royal North Stakes Saturday at Woodbine as the longest shot on the board, 70-1 chance Ms. Tart, blew past the field in the final strides to claim her first graded stakes victory for Nathan McCauley and trainer Kevin Rice, who also celebrated a first graded stakes win.

A debut winner from Colonial Downs back in 2023, the daughter of Maximus Mischief was immediately tossed into deep waters and sank to 12th behind the classy MGISW She Feels Pretty (Karakontie {Jpn}) in the GI Natalma Stakes. Faring no better as a 3-year-old, she finished the year with no better result in a third sprinting 5 1/2 furlongs at Ellis Park in the Pea Patch Stakes before bouncing around barns in and out of the claiming ranks. Picked up for just $35,000 by Kevin Rice in her first start at Gulfstream Jan. 18 of this year, Ms. Tart as found a string of good form in Florida, putting up back to back wins on the Tapeta and most recently finishing a good third behind 'TDN Rising Star' Earhart (Siyouni {Fr}) in the GIII Whimsical Stakes over the same distance May 3.

Facing that foe again Saturday but at woefully long odds and back on the grass for the first time since the Pea Patch, Ms. Tart was outrun by much of the line in the opening jumps and relegated to near last as Toupie (Uncle Mo) set the tempo inside of Dancing Duchess (Munnings) and Earhart furthest out. Still next to last midway around the sweeping turn, Ms. Tart hit the top of the stretch widest of the field but found plenty of momentum down the center of the Woodbine turf course and kept coming, just getting by 12-1 shot Ready to Jam in the final strides to top a monster trifecta with 39-1 shot Ticker Tape Home winning the photo for the show slot.

"It's amazing," said Rice. "It's my first graded stakes win, and it was just exciting watching, because, you know, going the gate, we're 40-something to one, and I'm not sure how we're going to do here, you know, full field and trying the turf here, but it was just amazing."

Pedigree Notes:

The 12th stakes winner for Maximus Mischief, Ms. Tart is out of a winning Lemon Drop Kid mare who has now produced three stakes runners including James W. Murphy Stakes winner T D Dance (Can the Man) and GIII Twin Spires Turf Sprint Stakes runner-up Kid Perfect (Majesticperfection) from six to race. Ms. Tart last went through the ring as a short yearling, fetching $145,000 at KEEJAN in 2022 for the partnership of Cash Is King and Commonwealth New Era Racing. Sheza Sweet Lemon has a yearling Corniche colt and was served by City of Light for this season.

Deep Satin (American Pharoah), who will most likely go off favored, comes off of a solid second over a yielding turf course at Keeneland. Her numbers indicate she's due for a career best, and if Jose Ortiz is able to navigate a trip from post 11, she's in with a big chance. Pin Up Betty (Constitution) could be one that gets lost in the shuffle. In her 4-year-old debut, Mike Maker threw in a very tough spot in the GII Distaff Turf Mile S. only to lose by a neck that day at 12-1. The favorite in that race was Movin' On Up (Accelerate), who loses Jose Ortiz to Deep Satin but gets the Hall of Famer Frankie Dettori. She looks to get a great trip in behind the speed and likely the one to run down at the top of the stretch. --Noah Meagher

JUNE 1 INSIGHTS: CHURCHILL HOSTS DEBUTING HALF-BROTHER TO LATE MIDNIGHT BOURBON, SIRE GIRVIN

by Patrycja Szpyra

Cannoneer schooling at Churchill Downs | Horsephotos

4th-CD, $120k, Msw, 2yo, 5 1/2f, 2:13p.m. ET

Leaving the four hole on this unveiling as the most expensive auction buy in the race, CANNONEER (Into Mischief) will be carrying the colors of the partnership of St Elias and Stonestreet Stables. A $1.75-million purchase last year at KEESEP, the son of top sire Into Mischief claims a fleet of accomplished half-siblings, most notable being the late GSW & MGISP Midnight Bourbon (Tiznow) and sire GISW Girvin (Tale of Ekati). Also in dam Catch the Moon (Malibu Moon)'s family portrait is GSW Cocked and Loaded (Colonel John) and GSW Pirate's Punch (Shanghai Bobby). One of said mare's full-sisters is Clarendon Fancy, herself the mother of GISW Brightwork (Outwork) and GSP Just as Fancy (Volatile). A half-sister to that pair produced GSP As Catch Can (Mo Town). Cannoneer is trained by Brad Cox and will have Florent Geroux in the irons as the morning line lists him at 2-1 odds.

To that one's outside is Macchiato (Gun Runner), the Winchell Thoroughbreds homebred who hails from the immediate female family of champion 3-year-old filly MGISW Untapable (Tapit) and her half-brother GISW Paddy O'Prado (El Prado {Ire}). A full-sister to the GI Kentucky Oaks victress is Red House, dam of MGSW Red Route One (Gun Runner) and his full-brother MSW & MGSP Red Run. Steve Asmussen trains this one.

Password (Uncle Mo) will break from the rail for owner/breeder Peter Blum and trainer Rodolphe Brisset. The colt's dam is a half-sister to several black-type winners and black-type producers, including Initiation (Deputy Minister), who would eventually create a branch which yielded Canadian champion 3-year-old filly Elysian Field (Hard Spun). Another half-sister, Treasure (Medaglia d'Oro) would gain acclaim via her 'TDN Rising Star' son, champion dirt male MGISW National Treasure (Quality Road). TJCIS PPs

6th-SA, $60k, Msw, 2yo, 5fT, 6:38p.m. ET Racing in the colors of owner/breeder Calumet Farm is Brigante (More Than Ready) for trainer Doug O'Neill in a baby dash on the grass. Hailing from an extremely deep female family, the ridgling claims some of the sport's biggest stars as relatives. His second dam is MGSW Caress (Storm Cat), making his own dam Cheeky Charm (A.P. Indy) a half-sister to the likes of GISW Sky Mesa (Pulpit) and MGSW & GISP Golden Velvet (Seeking the Gold), herself mother to GSW Lucullan (Hard Spun) and GSW Innovative Idea (Bernardini). The lattermost mare would herself gain fame through her own daughter, MGISW Matareya (Pioneer of the Nile). Another half-sister to Cheeky Charm, Velvety (Bernardini), would produce MGISW Maxfield and his half-sister GSW Loved (Medaglia d'Oro). This is also the extended family of GSW Touchuponstar (Star Guitar) and MGSW & GISP Good Samaritan (Harlan's Holiday).

Eyeing that one in the gate to his inside is the John Sadler trainee Hey Nay Nay (Ire) (No Nay Never). A $300,000 KEESEP buy last year, the Irish-bred is a half-brother to Group winner Global Storm (Ire) (Night of Thunder {Ire}), a frequent face in the upper levels of European racing in his time. Their half-sister is last year's Listed placed Where I Wanna Be (Ire) (Camelot {Ire}). Dam Travel (Street Cry {Ire}) is a half-sibling to the ill-fated GI Kentucky Derby second Eight Belles (Unbridled's Song).

On the rail is Won for Lou (Bucchero), a half-brother to SP Tweety Show (English Channel), who also heads out from the O'Neill barn. Their dam is a full-sister to G1 Epsom Oaks victress Casual Look (Red Ransom), who herself went on to produce GSW Casual Smile (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}). Another Grade I-placed full-sister Shabby Chic claims G2 Italian Oaks victress Fashion Statement (GB) (Rainbow Quest). TJCIS PPs

An inside fifth through fractions of :23.42 and :47.71, the 6-1 chance traveled nicely while splitting horses on the far turn. He angled out to take on the top two for the stretch run and kept on coming down the lane to get there in time. Dabinett is also responsible for the 2-year-old colt Heeere's Johnny (Oscar Performance), a $100,000 KEESEP yearling purchase by Magic Carpet Racing, and a pair of Oscar Performance fillies of 2024 and 2025. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Luvumorgan elevated her game in black-type competition after she broke her maiden by three lengths at second asking going two turns in Hallandale Mar. 2.

Off as a 10-1 shot here, the bay was unhurried to the outside second last as a trio vied for the lead up the backstretch. The filly started to make progress around the far turn as she ranged up on favorite Win N Your In and Andrea. Battling down the lane, Luvumorgan gained the advantage past the eighth pole and got her picture taken.

First Mistress's last registered foal is a colt by Runhappy who is currently a juvenile. The winner's dam is a half-sister to MGSP Mia Torri (General Quarters) who herself produced sire Two Phil's (Hard Spun). CLICQUOT (f, 3, Quality Road--Royal Obsession {GSP, $140,857}, by Tapit) was a non-factor as the favorite in her Gulfstream unveiling March 1 but came back much improved to dominate at Keeneland going seven furlongs April 17. Trying two turns for the first time Saturday facing several well-met rivals, the narrow 2-1 second choice had her work cut out for her right away with race favorite Heavenly Sunset (Constitution) sent to the lead from the inside. Having to run down that leader from second, Clickquot drew gradually closer past the half-mile pole and finally wore that rival down into the stretch, drawing off to win by 1 3/4 lengths.

MEGALODON (c, 3, Medaglia d'Oro--Student Body {SW, $159,956}, by Colonel John) earned a black-type placing when second in the Rushaway Stakes going this distance on the Tapeta at Turfway March 22. Never a factor when tossed into the GI American Turf Stakes at Churchill on the Derby undercard, Megalodon bounced back here with Lasix as the 6-5 favorite. Splitting the field up the rail, he enjoyed a ground-saving trip while steadily picking up placing up the backstretch.

KAPOOR (f, 3, Uncle Mo--Kareena {SW, $148,000}, by Medaglia d'Oro) had strung together back-to-back third-place efforts in her first two jumps--Feb. 9 at Gulfstream Park and again Apr. 7 at Keeneland--and the betting public couldn't take their eyes off her here, crowning the Godolphin homebred the 6-5 favorite for her third attempt to graduate. Jostled around when leaving the blocks, she recovered quickly to dictate the tempo on an uncontested lead through :22.46 and a half in :45.30. Still enjoying a clear advantage as they swung through the bend and into the stretch, she widened it to 4 1/4 lengths over Speighter Woman (Speightster) on the wire as that one closed for second. A half-sister to SP Padma (Tapit), who produced a Street Sense filly this year, Kapoor is their dam's second winner behind that sibling. Kareena's 2023 Constitution foal died, but she does have a yearling filly by Tapit as well as a 2025 filly by Constitution. Said broodmare is a daughter of MGSW India (Hennessy), making her a half-sister to Japanese multiple Group 1 winner Mozu Ascot (Frankel {GB}). EXCITE (c, 3, Speightstown--Elate {MGISW, $2,628,775}, by Medaglia d'Oro), the homebred son of Elate, finally broke into the win column Saturday in his fifth attempt. Tried on both turf and dirt since debuting late last December, his previous best effort was a third beaten just a half-length going a mile on the grass at Gulfstream in February. Stretching back out to 1 1/8 miles here having last gone seven furlongs on a sloppy Churchill main track on the Derby undercard, the 8-5 favorite sat right off early leader Bourbon Society (Bernardini) through the half in :46.91 before taking over into the far turn. Ridden out to the wire, Excite came home a handy 5 1/4-lengths ahead of Kavanaugh (Malibu Moon), who closed from out of it to steal second.

QUICK SAND (f, 2, Omaha Beach--Purely Lucky, by Lookin At Lucky) debuted as a 5-2 shot against auction restricted company here and got down to business at the bell to lead from the rail. Setting the fractions through an opening quarter mile in :22.38, the filly continued to make the pace around the far turn as she opened up her advantage to five lengths and got the jump on the rest of the field down the lane. If If If (Basin) tried valiantly to run the 2-year-old down, and managed to cut into that margin, but came up short by three-quarters of a length. A half-sister to MSW Very Vegas (Storm Boot) and SW Manhattan Dan (Big Brown), the winner's dam is responsible for a yearling filly by Army Mule. Sales History: $40,000 Ylg '24 KEESEP. FOURTH AND CENTRAL (g, 2, Cajun Breeze--Little Red Frog, by Munnings) was keen to go as the narrow 7-5 second choice but briefly outrun into the turn by 6-5 favorite Express Lane (Khozan) who came across on Camigol shortly after the start. Pushing past that runner into the turn, Fourth and Central built up an advantage and just lasted over Camigol in a tight finish. A rider's claim of foul was lodged by the runner up against the winner but the stewards made no change as the fault was found to be with Express Lane who faded to finish fifth. Karl Burke: "I thought it was a ridiculous idea - it will be a crying shame if it goes through" | Tattersalls

By Adam Houghton

Karl Burke, who has sent out more Royal Ascot-winning two-year-olds in the last decade than every other trainer bar Aidan O'Brien, has emerged as a fierce opponent to planned changes to the Windsor Castle Stakes, describing the new race conditions announced by the British Horseracing Authority's Flat Pattern Committee (FPC) as a "ridiculous idea".

In a press release issued by the FPC on Tuesday, it was revealed that the distance of the Windsor Castle will be increased to six furlongs from 2026. In addition, the Listed contest will be restricted to juveniles whose sire won at least once over seven furlongs plus at two, or a mile plus at three and above.

According to the FPC, these recommendations are part of a wider effort, in conjunction with the European Pattern Committee (EPC), to strengthen the middle-distance and staying horse divisions, and to broaden the appeal of sires beyond those predominately aimed at producing precocious speed.

Burke, however, believes that the new-look Windsor Castle will simply prove low-hanging fruit for the major owner-breeder operations with a monopoly on the best progeny of the top middle-distance stallions. Cont. p3

COULD IT BE SINILEO? WERTHEIMER WILDCARD IN DEEP IN THE JOCKEY CLUB

By Tom Frary

In a numerically-strong renewal of the G1 Qatar Prix du Jockey-Club featuring a Group 1-winning Classic-placed Ballydoyle representative and some customary trial winners, would it be weird to focus on a once-raced colt with no pattern-race experience? Usually yes, but not in this case when we are dealing with a Wertheimer homebred trained by Andre Fabre and given a major vote of confidence from Maxime Guyon. Step forward Sinileo, a son of Siyouni from the same Galileo cross as two recent winners in Sottsass and St Mark's Basilica who has been supplemented for his ambitious tilt on the back of an easy mile maiden win here 16 days ago.

A half-brother to Vagalame, who dead-headed for fifth in this three years ago, the bay bids to become the first Jockey-Club winner since Pharis in 1939 having only his second start and the draw gods have at least shown him mercy in stall four. Cont. p8

"We've got that many quangos trying to make racing for everybody, but the only people going to benefit from this are Coolmore and Ballydoyle and Darley and Godolphin, so far as I can see," Burke told the TDN after learning of the proposed changes. "The Windsor Castle has always been a race where the average man in the street has got a chance of buying a relatively cheap horse and having a runner at Royal Ascot. This is going to take that away from them.

"I'd say, nine times out of ten, the conditions of the race that they're suggesting will see a Ballydoyle horse at 6/4, a Godolphin horse at 2/1, and then it will be 10/1 bar. To me it just smacks of elitism and I don't know who thinks that this is going to promote the breeding of staying horses. I thought it was a ridiculous idea. It will be a crying shame if it goes through and I think it will be to the detriment of a lot of people."

Journalist and broadcaster Lydia Hislop is the chair of the FPC, with Burke's fellow trainers William Haggas and Simon Crisford also featuring among its 11 members. Hislop was contacted by the TDN on Friday and strongly refuted the suggestion that the changes recommended by the FPC were in any way "elitist".

"The idea that it's elitist, I think that's looking at it through a very narrow end of the telescope," she said. "I understand that people who have commercial irons in the fire might feel that this is not a positive thing, but we're trying to ensure the diversity of the breed and that the supply of horses fits the race programme in the longer term, which couldn't be a more democratic argument.

"If we think about what people want to watch and how our sport is funded, via betting but also via TV coverage and attendances, people wish to see a diverse and competitive sport. At the moment, the supply chain is not delivering what the sport needs it to deliver, in order for it to carry on in that way.

"So, we can either be ruled by sectional, short-term interests, which I fear have often won the argument over the past 10 or 15 years. Or we can think about the long-term future of the sport, and I think that's what this decision is being made for."

Expanding on the rationale behind the changes, Hislop added, "At the moment, there appears to be a bias towards precocious speed. We're conscious that Royal Ascot already offers many opportunities for that. There is still the Queen Mary at five furlongs, there is still the Norfolk at five furlongs. It seemed that there was perhaps an over-emphasis and that these races were creating a sort of self-fulfilling prophecy."

"The concern is that there are a lot of horses being bred for a two-year-old target in June," Hislop continued. "If you have a disproportionate number of horses being bred for that target, then I don't think that is good for the long-term health of the breed--it certainly isn't good for the short-term health of the British racing industry."

It will likely be many years before we know whether these changes have been successful in their aims but, make no mistake, the fields assembled for future editions of the Windsor Castle will immediately look unrecognisable compared to those we've come to know since it was first awarded Listed status in 2004.

Last year, for example, only four of the 27 runners would have been able to eligible to run had the new race conditions already been in place. It would have been 4/23 in 2023 and 5/24 the previous year. All told, six of the last 10 winners would have needed to look elsewhere for a run at Royal Ascot.

Neither Little Big Bear nor Big Evs, two of the best winners of the Windsor Castle in recent times, would have qualified which, in hindsight, might have been for the betterment of the Norfolk. Big Evs, for example, ran to a BHA performance figure of 111 when winning the Windsor Castle in 2023, whereas Norfolk hero Valiant Force came away from the meeting with a Group 2 success on his CV despite running to a figure of just 108.

No Nay Never, the sire of Little Big Bear, and Blue Point, who produced Big Evs from his very first crop, were both winners at the meeting themselves, but at shorter trips than the new conditions demand.

And they're just two of the big-name stallions who will have one less chance to sire a Royal Ascot winner in years to come. When you throw into that mix other active stallions such as Dark Angel, Mehmas, Kodiak, Havana Grey, Showcasing and Ardad, then it's a safe bet that a few powerful stud farm owners out there didn't welcome the news with open arms, either.

"It's disappointing from my point of view," confirmed Simon Sweeting of Overbury Stud, home to the 2016 Windsor Castle winner in Ardad. "Whilst I completely understand that they want to try and encourage the breeding of more middle-distance horses, you can't just forget about the more precocious, commercial type of stallion."

"This will obviously rule them out [of having runners in the Windsor Castle] and I think it would be a mistake to do that in one fell swoop. I don't think you can make a rapid change and I don't think it's going to have a particularly beneficial effect, as quickly as people might want it to."

Referencing the insatiable appetite of owners on the hunt for juveniles capable of running at Royal Ascot, he added, "It is a quick way to have success at the Royal meeting, which is what most owners aspire to and is a very, very important factor. If people can come in, buy a horse and taste success--or just enjoy the pleasure of being at Royal Ascot--then that in itself could lead to people getting more involved going forward, including with the middle-distance type of horse."

"I understand the reasons for the changes but, when you're standing stallions, there's no point trying to sell people pears when they want to buy apples."

Those sentiments were echoed by Burke, who provided some insight into the pressures faced by modern-day trainers when it comes to recruiting Royal Ascot juveniles for their owners.

"I would say 70-80% of the owners who we buy yearlings for are asking us to look for a precocious two-year-old that has a chance of going to Ascot," he explained. Cont. p5

"That will be the case when we go to the Premier Sale at Goffs, the Somerville Sale at Tattersalls or the September Sale at Tattersalls Ireland. We know that 90% of them don't make it, but there are a lot of horses bought at those sales I've just mentioned, specifically for an Ascot runner," he added.

Burke has saddled five two-year-old winners at Royal Ascot since 2020 alone, from Dandalla winning the Albany Stakes five years ago to a double in 2024 courtesy of Queen Mary heroine Leovanni and Norfolk scorer Shareholder. Dandalla was a relatively cheap buy at €22,000 from the September Yearling Sale, whereas Shareholder struck at Royal Ascot little more than a month after being bought for €460,000 at the Arqana Breeze-up Sale.

The Middleham trainer has certainly delivered on the brief for his owners, be their budget big or small, but the obsession with five days in June that Burke and his colleagues are having to accommodate leaves Hislop with questions.

"If that percentage of owners want a precocious two-year-old, what happens to that two-year-old in July? And August? And September? And when it's a three-year-old or four-year-old?" she asked. "I think on the [Nick Luck Daily] podcast, Nick spoke with Jane Mangan and the view was that the horse is for life, not just for Royal Ascot as a two-year-old.

Burke's Queen Mary winner Leovanni | Getty Images

"I think the industry needs to step back and look at that as a business model and ask itself, 'Is that sustainable?'. And do we think this is a position that British racing can be proud of?"

It was also suggested by the eponymous host on Wednesday's Nick Luck Daily that exceptions could be made for the likes of Blue Point, advocating even a possible tweak to the conditions which would allow runners by stallions who won a Group 1 at the age of three or above. Cont. p6

Burke, too, was said to be incredulous when he learned of the identity of some of the elite sires whose progeny would be barred from the start line for the Windsor Castle from next year.

Hislop concedes that a horse like Blue Point might have been somewhat caught in the crossfire of these changes. The Kildangan Stud resident who completed a memorable Group 1 sprint double at Royal Ascot aged five is far from the flash-bang two-year-old type that has saturated the stallion market in recent years, many would argue to the detriment of the breed.

It's worth remembering, however, the extent to which stallions of Blue Point's ilk will still be catered for at Royal Ascot, a fixture where nearly 30% (10/35) of the races are run over six furlongs or less.

"I thought that was a very interesting suggestion, although I'd imagine some might say that that was an even more elitist way of going about it," Hislop said of Luck's compromise. "I agree that it is a shame that the progeny of a horse such as Blue Point, who was a proper top-class sprinter, might not be eligible for the Windsor Castle. But there is still the Coventry, there is still the Queen Mary, there is still the Albany, and there is still the Norfolk.

"There are opportunities for two-year-olds and, almost more importantly for the long-term health of the breed, there is also the Commonwealth Cup, there is also the King Charles III, and there is also the Queen Elizabeth II Jubilee. There are many, many, many races at Royal Ascot for the likes of Blue Point's progeny to be running in--the Windsor Castle just won't be one of them."

She added, "I think it [the changes to the Windsor Castle] might help strengthen the Norfolk which has been under some pressure in recent years. I think there was almost too much of a crossover between the two races in the end and horses that you really felt ought to be running in the Norfolk were instead running in the Windsor Castle. So, I think that is potentially a big positive, ditto for the Queen Mary. It could help in that regard."

As for the older sprinters, it was only last year that the Group 1 status of the Commonwealth Cup was reported to be at risk, with Malton trainer Richard Fahey describing himself at the time as "hugely surprised" by the development. In 2022, he registered his second win in the race courtesy of Perfect Power, Ardad's first crop son who'd already won the Norfolk the previous year.

Consulted by the TDN about the changes to the Windsor Castle announced earlier this week, Fahey again expressed his concern with regards the apparent downward trajectory of the domestic sprinting scene.

"What's amazed me really is that in the past few years our sprinters seem to have gotten worse," he said. "Why aren't they trying to protect the sprinters as well? There was talk about changing the Commonwealth Cup from a Group 1 to a Group 2 last year. This won't help that situation but, look, it is only one race. It's not going to make a massive difference to me, but I'm sure a lot of people will disagree. As you get older, whatever they do you just carry on!"

Carry on we all will, no doubt, but those with the power to instigate genuine change cannot just bury their heads in the sand any longer, according to Hislop who, whilst agreeing with Fahey's comments about the sprinting scene, warned against conflating speed and precocity.

She also stressed that the Pattern Committees remain intent on strengthening the quality of the sprint division in Europe, with the upshot being that the likelihood of the Commonwealth Cup being downgraded in the near future is very low, even in the event that the annual and rolling three-yearly ratings dictate that the matter must be discussed by the EPC.

"For a good while now--probably for the same 20-odd years we've seen the staying division in slow decline--we've been breeding more precocious types, and yet we're not breeding better sprinters," she asserted. "We made improvements to the sprint programme. The Commonwealth Cup was created out of nothing by the EPC as part of a coherent sprinting programme, an opportunity for three-year-old sprinters to have something to focus on. There are challenges, but you have to stick with it.

"Quite often in this conversation, precocity and sprinting can become conflated. They are not the same thing. We would like a thriving sprint programme, in the same way that we would like a thriving stayers' programme, but the Pattern Committees are only part of that equation. It also requires broader, industry-wide prioritisation and focus."

Of course, the plan for the Windsor Castle is not the only intervention we've seen brought in with the aim of safeguarding the production, retention and racing of quality horses with stamina in Europe. This population has been dwindling over a number of years, with an already threadbare programme being decimated further by the loss of talented stayers to different racing jurisdictions such as Australia.

The Pattern Committees first began work on the stayers' project in 2016, before generating a framework of pan-European upgrades to the staying Pattern programme the following year. As recently as February, the EPC announced a series of Group 1 upgrades in this area. Cont. p8

Hislop also highlighted the way the BHA Development Fund has been utilised in recent years. In 2025, over £3.3 million in prize-money will be available across 88 High-Value Developmental Races in Britain, with an increased focus on potential stayers.

"This is the thing we're really good at here, producing middle-distance horses and stayers," Hislop added of European racing's traditional strong suit. "Those pedigrees are so old and well developed. What they are is class, that's what they are. It's not just stamina. And we seem to be valuing that so cheaply that we're prepared to mortgage our future for the sake of some two-year-old races in June.

"I don't think that the sport can carry on just looking at that and thinking, somehow, it's all going to be fine, because it isn't."

"Sinileo won very easily, impressing Maxime Guyon," the owner-breeders' racing manager Pierre-Yves Bureau said. "He is in a large field and lacks experience, so we are a bit in the unknown. He showed very nice acceleration on his debut and the race seems open, so we are taking our chance. As far as I can remember, supplementing one of ours for the Jockey Club is not a frequent occurrence."

Clarehaven And Ballydoyle Double-Handed

Also drawn favourably is the likely favourite Camille Pissarro, who goes up in trip having finished off so well in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains. That is a decision made more on jockey opinion than pedigree and it will be interesting to see if he can impose himself on a trio that finished just behind him at ParisLongchamp in Luther, Ridari and Detain. Camille Pissarro is in one, with his stablemate and possible pacemaker Trinity College handily-placed in three and it will be interesting to see if the latter, who is a useful colt in his own right, goes forward and if so what kind of test he presents to the others.

The Gosdens supply their own duo in the aforementioned Detain and TDN Rising Star Bowmark, with stalls six and eight respectively aiding their cause. Like Camille Pissarro, Detain is a Wootton Bassett but with a stouter pedigree while Kingman's Bowmark will appreciate moving up from a mile being from the family of Serpentine.

Thady Gosden said of the Clarehaven pair, “We had the Prix du Jockey Club in mind even before Detain’s race in the Poule d’Essai des Poulains and he confirmed there that he will handle this trip. He’s not a real stayer like Arrest, as he is by Wootton Bassett and thus has more speed and his preparation has gone well.

“Bowmark has not yet shown all his talent, but he won like a very good colt at York and William Buick who came to ride him in the morning told us he should handle this distance without any problem. It is very difficult to choose between our two runners—they have very different profiles.”

Downed By The Draw?

In this race, when you go into double figures with the draw you are talking about a task made significantly harder regardless of talent. While New Bay, Intello and Lope De Vega overcame such a compromising post position in recent times, none have done so since 2015. Connections of Luther, who was fourth in the Poulains, will take heart from the fact that although Kieran Shoemark will have to navigate stall 13 here, that trio all came off a prominent showing in the ParisLongchamp Classic. A win for the same connections as the disqualified Pouliches winner Shes Perfect would be well-received and Luther is bred to love this trip at least.

Another certain to enjoy stretching out from a mile is Ridari, the G3 Prix de Fontainebleau winner who was a short neck and a head behind Camille Pissarro and Luther and a length in front of Detain in the Poulains. Mikel Delzangles is happy that the son of the G1 Prix de l’Opera heroine Ridasiyna can make his presence felt as one of the country’s leading middle-distance colts. “The Poulains is a good trial for this and although they broke the track record he seems well and I think he has progressed again physically,” he said.

“He produced a very nice finish there and was hampered a few metres from the post by the second which probably cost him fourth place or even third,” he added. “He was a bit tense at two and we weren’t sure about stepping him up in trip so quickly, but his behaviour is improving and I have no doubt that he will stay 2,100 metres. I also trained his dam and there are many similarities between them. They are horses with a lot of blood and physically they resemble each other a little.”

“You cannot run in this race with a horse you don’t feel is mature enough to compete,” he concluded. “It’s a race that can leave its mark. You should only run in it if you have a good chance with a colt fit enough to handle it, otherwise they need 12 months to recover! You need a 1,600-metre horse who can stay 2,100 metres and a very good 1,600-metre horse can handle 400 metres more without a problem.”

ESTRANGE IMPRESSIVE IN THE LESTER PIGGOTT

By Tom Frary

Last seen winning Doncaster’s Listed Gillies Fillies’ Stakes in November, Cheveley Park Stud’s Estrange was back with a bang in Saturday’s G3 Lester Piggott Fillies’ Stakes at Haydock. Confidently ridden by Danny Tudhope anchored in rear early, the 13-8 second favourite loomed on the outer approaching two out as if she had just joined in. Sent on soon after, the David O’Meara-trained daughter of Night Of Thunder responded with relish to record an emphatic 4 1/4-length success from the 11-8 market-leader Shaha.

Estrange has been entered in the Arc, which says a lot about the regard in which she is held, and O’Meara was not keen to pour cold water on the enthusiasm. “Potentially she could be the best we’ve had,” he said.

"Danny said she's great to ride. She shuts down and saves energy, you can put her anywhere and give her a small squeeze and she comes alive. For me, for the yard, for everyone it is brilliant to have a horse like her," O'Meara continued.

"She handles cut in the ground, she's gone on good ground today. I think we'll stay away from quick conditions, but the [G1] Pretty Polly could be considered or there's a race back here, the [G2] Lancashire Oaks, and then the [G1] Yorkshire Oaks and if she is good enough it would be great to be considering Longchamp. It never looked in doubt at any stage today."

Pedigree Notes

Estrange was a purchase by the Stud, a 425,000gns one at Tattersalls October Book 1 due to her dam Alienate being Oasis Dream's half-sister to the G1 St Leger hero Logician. Responsible also for Frankel's G2 Park Hill Stakes third Lmay and the Listed-placed Basalt by Pinatubo, the unraced Juddmonte cast-off is also kin to four other black-type performers including Champs Elysees's triple Graded-Stakes scorer and GI E. P. Taylor Stakes runner-up Suffused who is the dam of Sunday's unbeaten G3 Prix de Royaumont contender Sunly by Estrange's sire Night Of Thunder.

Alienate's full-sister Sleep Walk is responsible for Caravaggio's dual GI Diana Stakes heroine Whitebeam and another Frankel colt in Nightwalker who was third in the G3 Autumn Stakes and lines up in Saturday's Derby. This is the family of the smart sires Cityscape and Bated Breath, whose Oasis Dream-sired half-sister Tarentaise produced Equiano's G2 Meydan Sprint winner and G1 King's Stand Stakes runner-up Equilateral. Alienate's 2-year-old colt by Lope De Vega was a 62,000gns purchase by Andrew Oliver at the Tattersalls Somerville Yearling Sale.

JUWELIER ON TOP IN THE DERBY-TRIAL

By Tom Frary

Providing a timely boost to the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club prospects of Nitoi, Leffard and Azimpour, Wootton Bassett's Jewelier who had trailed that trio when fifth in Chantilly's Listed Prix de Suresnes earlier in the month made his detour to Baden-Baden a successful one in Saturday's G3 Japan Racing Association Derby-Trial. Allowed to forge into a clear early lead by Adrie de Vries, the freewheeling 6-1 shot had to get to work as the eventual third Next Mine pressed on approaching the final quarter mile but proved equal to the task to see off that rival and hold the late thrust of Soldier Hollow's 6-5 favourite Path Of Soldier by a short head.

"He was going too fast, but I saw no sense in fighting him and let him have his head," De Vries explained. "He started looking around on the turn, which gave him the chance for a breather and then he came back, fighting well in the straight." Alessandro Botti added, "He is still green and a big baby and the [G1 Deutsches] Derby is his target."

Pedigree Notes

Juwelier's dam Gravitee, who has produced the useful filly Curvature by Lope De Vega, is also responsible for a 2-year-old full-brother to that dual Listed scorer who was a 300,000gns purchase by Repole Stable at Tattersalls October Book 1. By Galileo, Gravitee is therefore a full-sister to the G1 Prix du Jockey Club hero and sire Intello with their dam being Danehill's Impressionante who landed the G2 Prix de Sandringham and was runner-up in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulaches.

The third dam is the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest and G1 Prix de la Foret heroine Occupandiste, whose four Stakes winners include Galileo's GI Arlington Million and GI Woodbine Mile hero Mondialiste, while this is the dynasty of the stellar producer Fall Aspen which features Dubai Millennium.

SCENIC PREVAILS IN THE BRONTE CUP

Ed Walker with Scenic | Racingphotos.com

By Tom Frary

Still making her way in the staying category, David Ward's Scenic enjoyed her finest hour in Saturday's G3 Bronte Cup Fillies' Stakes at York. Successful in the Listed Galtres Stakes over a mile and a half here in August, the Ed Walker-trained mare had signed off last season with a fourth in Doncaster's G2 Park Hill Fillies' Stakes before returning to fill second spot behind Shaha in Goodwood's Listed Daisy Warwick Fillies' Stakes earlier in the month. Reserved in rear early by Saffie Osborne, the 7-2 second favourite was delivered to overhaul last year's winner Term Of Endearment close home and score by a head.

"She's just a really lovely, game horse and it's a big result," Walker said. "We've always had this race in mind and then we just snuck in the race at Goodwood first, the ground was right and we thought it might bring her forward. We couldn't get on grass much this spring, so there's improvement in her still. We'll probably come back for the Yorkshire Oaks. She loves it here and we've absolutely nothing to lose. We'll have a crack and then the Prix de Royallieu at the end of the year will be the big shot for her."

Pedigree Notes

Scenic, who was becoming the 80th Group winner for Lope De Vega, is out of Frankel's unraced Ghalyah, whose siblings include Montjeu's G3 Prix de Lutece winner and Stakes producer Pacifique and the Listed Lingfield Derby Trial scorer English King by Montjeu's son Camelot. Another of them is Dansili's Listed Prix de la Seine winner Prudenzia, in turn the dam of Galileo's G1 Mackinnon Stakes heroine Magic Wand and the G1 Irish Oaks heroine Chicquita also by Montjeu whose own progeny list is headed by Dubawi's G2 Curragh Cup-winning daughter Emily Dickinson. Cont. p12

TEN BOB TONY COMPLETES NIGHT OF THUNDER DOUBLE AT HAYDOCK

By Tom Frary

On another big afternoon for Night Of Thunder, Ten Bob Tony continued the good work begun by the exciting Estrange by completing a Group 3 double for the sire in Haydock's G3 John Of Gaunt Stakes. Also making it two in this category on the afternoon was the Ed Walker stable, following the win of Scenic at York, with TBT Racing's newly-gelded 4-year-old regaining the level he had hit when runner-up to the smart Topgear in ParisLongchamp's G3 Prix du Pin in September.

In front initially before the pace became too hot, the 5-1 shot was coaxed back to the lead by William Buick approaching the final furlong as the high-class veteran Kinross emerged.

Ten Bob Tony (right) | Getty Images

Battling to ward off that Kingman flagbearer in the final yards, he eked out a career-best head success to complete a stellar week for the yard after the wins of Mgheera, Almaqam, Scenic and Balmoral Lady.

"Ten Bob Tony was Simon Sadler's first ever horse and he's now come into the game in quite a big way," Walker said. "He had his first stakes winner in Qilin Queen in a Listed race at Newbury on Lockinge day and then this first Group-race win. I've won Group Ones before, but I have to say this has been a special day and special week."

Walker, who was at York, was represented by his assistant Matty Hicks who said of the winner, "He's always gone well fresh, he was a bit head-scratching towards the end of last year but we always banked on his form in France with Topgear and he's shown it a couple of times since. Topgear looks a Group One winner in waiting, so we've always liked our horse. He's very tough and gelding him has made him a bit more of a man, he's getting towards being the finished article. I'd say he's more like to go back up to a mile than down to six furlongs and he has two entries at Ascot, the Hunt Cup and Queen Anne."

Pedigree Notes

Ten Bob Tony is the second foal out of Dark Angel's Hug, who is kin to Machiavellian's G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulaches heroine Tie Black and Dutch Art's Listed scorer Besotted, who is in turn the dam of the G3 Prix des Reservoirs winner Fancy Me by Pivotal and the dual Stakes winner and Group and Graded-Stakes-placed See You Around by Pivotal's Siyouni. Cont. p13

Flight and Simmering in the 1,000 Guineas at Newmarket, Desert Flower is the sponsor's 7/4 favourite to complete a Classic double at Epsom, a feat last achieved by the Aidan O'Brien-trained Love five years ago.

O'Brien is responsible for three of the remaining nine contenders in Giselle (Frankel), the wide-margin winner of the Listed Lingfield Oaks Trial, Minnie Hauk (Frankel), who won the Listed Cheshire Oaks on her most recent start, and the G3 Musidora Stakes scorer Whirl (Wootton Bassett).

Last seen finishing fourth behind Desert Flower when having just her second start in the 1,000 Guineas, the Saeed bin Suroor-trained Elwateen (Dubawi) was supplemented on Friday at a cost of £30,000. She will be the sole representative in the Classic for the Shadwell team who, as expected, have taken their Falakeyah out of the race.

Joseph O'Brien's Wemightakelongway (Australia) could join the Ballydoyle contingent on the journey from Ireland, having won the G3 Salsabil Stakes at Navan on her most recent outing, while the possible field is completed by the one-two from the Listed Fillies' Trial Stakes at Newbury, Qilin Queen (Pinatubo) and Revoir (Study Of Man), and the Musidora third Go Go Boots (Night Of Thunder).

Meanwhile, eight horses remain in contention for the G1 Betfred Coronation Cup earlier on the card, headed by Francis-Henri Graffard's Calandagan (Gleneagles), whose last three starts have seen him fill the runner-up spot in a trio of top-level contests--the Juddmonte International, Champion Stakes and Dubai Sheema Classic.

St Leger hero Jan Brueghel (Frankel), Hong Kong Vase scorer Giavellotto (Mastercraftsman) and Irish Oaks winner You Got To Me (Nathaniel) all feature among his potential rivals.

GERMANY

Saturday's Results:

2nd-Baden-Baden, €15,000, Mdn, 5-31, 2yo, 5fT, :59.99, gd. ZUENDER (GER) (c, 2, Amaron {GB}--Zilla {Ger}, by Areion {Ger}) was swiftly into stride and raced in a prominent third from the outset of this first German juvenile contest of the year. Shaken up to challenge at the top of the straight, the 5-1 chance was ridden to gain an advantage approaching the final furlong and kept on strongly under mild coaxing in the latter stages to defeat Asalet (Best Solution) by three lengths. Zuender is the second live foal and scorer produced by a granddaughter of six-time winner Zarissa (Acatenango), who is a half-sister to G2 Grosser Preis von Dusseldorf victrix Zille (Experte). Descendants of Zarissa include G2 Oaks d'Italia third Zefania (Maxios) and the dual stakes-placed Zora (Toronado). The March-foaled homebred chestnut is a full-brother to a yearling filly. He is also a half-brother to last term's Listed Premio Campobello victor Zunder (Lord Of England). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, €9,000. O/B-Gestut Keilhof; T-Ralf Rohne.

First port of call must be the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains, which has become so key to this Classic since it was stripped of true "Derby" status when cut from the traditional mile-and-a-half trip 20 years ago. Camille Pissarro fared best of the five who took part in the mile Classic and has what looks an ideal draw in one, especially given that his stablemate Trinity College is close by but he seemed to be suited by being wide there and when winning the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere and he will be right in the thick of the crowd from that post. Ridari was on the premises in the Poulains and while he has a double-figure draw, those that have overcome that in recent times include a trio who came from that ParisLongchamp Classic and his style of racing suggests it is not the end of the world. Given that the Wertheimers already had Nitoi, the winner of an established trial in the track's Listed Prix de Suresnes, it is significant that they have not only supplemented Sinileo but that Maxime Guyon picks him. So impressive on debut over a mile here, he takes a mighty leap but Guyon has told Paris-Turf that this is their best 3-year-old. One of the better unexposed 3-year-old colts around, Bowmark just looks like a surefire good horse waiting to happen and a win would provide the Gosdens with a second Classic in 2025 with a son of Kingman. Germany's older brigade tussle for early pre-eminence, with last year's G2 Union-Rennen winner and G1 Grosser Preis Von Baden third Narrativo one of the likelier types. Another of the Classic crop of 2024 is the G3 Bavarian Classic scorer Wilko, who marked his return from a lengthy absence with success in the Listed Preis Von Dahlwitz at Hoppegarten in April. [Tom Frary].

The Aga Khan Studs' TDN Rising Star Vadinska takes aim at this prestigious prize following her 10-length romp at Saint-Cloud at the start of May. While the relative of Vadeni looks potentially out of the top drawer, there was a lot to like about the way Godspeed went through the G3 Prix de la Grotte and G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches and if things fall better for her here she could be the one to put it up to the favourite. [Tom Frary].

While Sibayan would be a fitting winner in the silks of the race that honours his late owner-breeder, he has a length to find on Arrow Eagle on their running in ParisLongchamp's G3 Prix d'Hedouville and is not certain to do so. Junko is the class act, but he was fourth on his belated return from injury in that contest and much depends on whether the 2023 G1 Hong Kong Vase hero retains his old ability. Chantilly's Jockey-Club undercard is graced by last year's G1 British Champions Sprint Stakes hero and G1 Haydock Sprint Cup runner-up Kind Of Blue, who escapes a penalty but who may need this comeback over a trip short of his optimum. Certain to be even better at four, he may yet overcome but will be readily forgiven if unable to deal with a fast filly like the G3 Cornwallis Stakes winner Coto De Caza on weight-for-age terms. The G3 Prix de Saint-Georges runner-up Ciao Pa' likes this track and is improving. [Tom Frary].

Sunly looked a smart prospect when winning the 11-furlong Listed Prix de la Seine at ParisLongchamp in early May and bids to become her family's second Group 3 winner of the weekend following the exploits of Estrange at Haydock. Rabbit's Foot is also two-for-two, but probably has more to do than when taking Toulouse's Listed Prix Caravelle in April while the Listed Cheshire Oaks runner-up Secret Of Love will tell us more about the Oaks prospects of Minnie Hauk. The Royal Ascot Two-Year-Old Trial runner-up Super Soldier is much truer-to-type in that regard for this kind of affair and Karl Burke usually hits when he targets these contests. [Tom Frary].

Last year's Listed Ripon Champion Two Yrs Old Trophy winner Soldier's Heart is a significant threat to the home-trained sprinters along with Arabie who returns to the scene of his big juvenile wins in the G3 Prix du Bois and G2 Prix Robert Papin. Second and fourth in this track's G3 Prix Sigy in April, Estepona and Rayevka retain upside, particularly the latter who was so impressive when earning TDN Rising Star status over this course and distance in September.
